

Summer Internship 2025: Editorial Content Intern

Description

The Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies (CES) partners with the Democracy and Culture Foundation (DCF) to offer a pre-negotiated editorial content internship opportunity at DCF for the summer of 2025.

DCF aims to empower society through citizen engagement and better governance. The Foundation identifies pressing issues, from migration to disinformation to climate change, and then undertakes a process of collective intelligence and deliberative democracy to propose concrete solutions to then enact through its own programs and those of partner organizations.

Location & Timeframe

The internship is based in either Athens or Nafplio, Greece, with occasional travel to Athens. The working language is English. Timeframe: full-time, eight weeks – June and July 2025.

Compensation

This internship will be fully funded by CES. The funds will cover travel, accommodation, and food expenses.

Responsibilities

- Updating curated library with relevant articles and reports on democracy and culture issues.
- Providing research assistance on Athens Democracy Forum (ADF) topics.
- Updating speaker and video databases.
- Helping with speaker research and outreach.
- Helping develop and execute content campaigns for ADF.
- Scoping out organizations and people to follow on social media channels in the lead-up to ADF (and Art for Tomorrow (AFT) where relevant).
- Seeking relevant articles on ADF topics for background packets.
- Researching potential new media and other partners for ADF.
- Brainstorming and drafting potential social media and other campaigns in advance of ADF.
