

Agenda for

The 2014 Summit on the Future of Europe at Harvard

September 22, 2014

10:30 a.m. – 11:45 a.m.

What's Needed to Keep Europe Safe? Geostrategic Threats and Energy Security in the Wake of the Ukraine Crisis

Off-the-record, invitation-only faculty roundtable discussion

Brief welcoming remarks by Grzegorz Ekiert and Nicolas Berggruen (2 min)

5-10 minute interventions by Dr. Joseph Nye, Harvard University Distinguished Service Professor, Harvard Kennedy School; Dr. Niall Ferguson, Laurence A. Tisch Professor of History, Harvard University; Dr. Richard Cooper, Maurits C. Boas Professor of International Economics, Harvard University; Dr. Mark Blyth, Professor of International Political Economy and Faculty Fellow, Watson Institute for International Studies, Brown University

Distinguished guests: H.E. Carl Bildt, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Sweden; H.E. Mario Monti, Prime Minister of Italy (2011-13)

Location: Cabot Room, Center for European Studies (CES), 27 Kirkland Street, Cambridge, MA

12:15 p.m. – 1:45 p.m.

Europe's Role in a Multipolar World

Welcome remarks by Nathan Gardels, Editor-in-Chief of The WorldPost; Senior Adviser, Berggruen Institute on Governance

Chair, Dr. Niall Ferguson, Laurence A. Tisch Professor of History, Harvard University, will ask each speaker 2 questions, then open the floor for questions from the audience

Speakers: H.E. Carl Bildt, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Sweden; H.E. Mario Monti, Prime Minister of Italy (2011-13); H.E. Vuk Jeremić, President, Center for International Relations and Sustainable Development; President, United Nations General Assembly (2012-13); Minister of Foreign Affairs of Serbia (2007-12)

Location: Main Dining Room, Harvard Faculty Club, 20 Quincy St, Cambridge, MA

Lunch will be served

3:15 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

The Ukraine Crisis: What's Next for Europe?

The event will be broadcast live online at: <http://new.livestream.com/accounts/7639591/events/3384692>

Chair, Grzegorz Ekiert, Director, Center for European Studies, introduces Nicolas Berggruen

Welcome remarks by Nicolas Berggruen, Founder and Chairman, Berggruen Institute on Governance
Chair introduces the speakers.

H.E. Carl Bildt, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Sweden gives a 15 min presentation.

H.E. Mario Monti, Prime Minister of Italy (2011-2013) gives a 15 min presentation.

Chair asks each speaker 1 question, then opens the floor for questions from the audience.

Location: Tsai Auditorium, CGIS-South, Harvard University, 1730 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, MA